Old House for Reconstruction

Property located in a quiet, rural area but very central and convenient, between Boliqueime village at 7 km and the city of Loulé at 6 km.

It needs a total reconstruction but it has the potential to be transformed into a charming and comfortable house, whether for your own home or even for rentals. The area has good tarmac access and all public services as water, drains and electricity are available for connection.

This will be a compact and low-maintenance property, ideal for those looking for a peaceful retreat has a few neighbors around that do not compromise the quiet atmosphere.
